my12 Assistant Bishop Randolph's late visit to Whittle Parish, as usual, was the occasion of a large assemblage at the Marshall and Plains churches. Several were made members of the latter church.

The mild form of fever which has prevailed in Marshall seems to have abated somewhat. Three deaths have this far oc curred. Dr. Henry Frost has now a case in the country traced from a house where there were two fatal cases. The theory of the infectio-contagious character of the disease held by some physicians would appear to be sustained by the fact that all save one or two of these fever cases can be traced to the same houses where the disease was during the summer of 1887.

Our late outing to the county of Clark was truly enjoyable. As it was made on horseback, an opportunity was enjoyed to survey one of the most picturesque sections of Virginia, abounding in large farms, im-mense herds of fat cattle, sheep, hogs, thrifty villages and lovely mountain scenery.
We passed Delaplane, the home of Mr. Albert Ashby and Delaplane and near Paris fell in with Dr. Settle, a typical medical countryman as he proved to be during the late civil war and the now typical country doctor. The monotony of one of the doc-tor's calling so removed from the centres of the world's hurly burly, he varies by the in-dulgence of a little sly humor. This lately was at the expense of a sympathizing lady consoling her friend, the doctor's patient that Job suffered more than she. The doctor demured to the consolation, remarking, "Job suffered only as the rougher sex could."

Tariff and its Effect on Wages and Prices.

It is claimed by high tariff men that our present tariff is absolutely necessary for the purpose of maintaining the high standard of wages paid to our mechanics and our Pennsylvania steel manufacturers insist, that notwithstanding the duty of $17 per tou on steel rails, foreign manufacturers can still ship them here and make a good profit on account of the lower wages they pay, let us see how far wages affect the price of this article.

In the first place this importation was only made possible by the fact that the great made possible by the fact that the great steel trust had raised the price of such rails to $41 per ton, which is just a few cents above the price at which they can be imported, for the importer of such rails has to pay a duty of $17 per ton, $2.56 freight and the price of rail in Europe, which is $21.24, making a total of $40.80 per ton. The actual importation commenced under those circumstances and it showed to our steel monopolists that there is a limit to their ex-CHEEP DIP, Sage, Ground Sage, Diamond Dyes, Fitche's Pocket Scales, Hood's Sarsaparilla, Warner's Kidney and Liver Cure, Brown's Iron Bitters, Volina Cordial, Pratt's Astral Oil, and Sweet Majoram—a large supply just received. dec1 E.
